

6516207513.txt

I believe that satellite radio is the most exciting and informative means of communication available to the public today. I have been a subscriber for about 7 months and I find it indispensable. The weather and traffic reports are most valuable to me. I make my living as a salesman and rely on these reports that are more updated and complete than any other available to me.